Dear Friends,

What's Inside

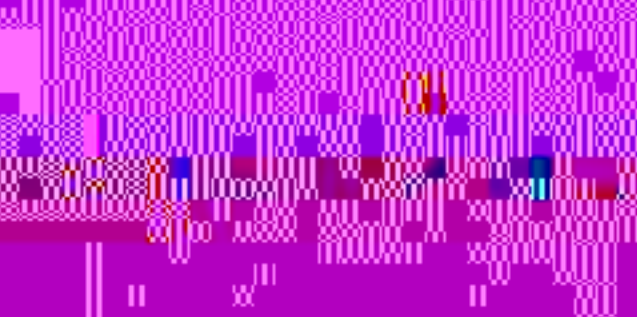

Dear Friends, I hope you are all well and happy. I am writing to you from the heart of the Midwest.

As I look upon my fellow alumni, I am reminded of the many years we have spent together, and I am grateful for the memories we have shared. I hope this newsletter will help to keep us all connected and informed.

I am sure that you will find this newsletter interesting and informative. I am sure that you will find it a valuable addition to your collection. I am sure that you will find it a valuable addition to your collection.

by M. Alejar

The entire Bedan Community beams again as another Bedan occupies a leadership position, this time in the print media industry. Mr. René

K. Reinoso of HS Class '78 was recently appointed Chief Operating Officer (COO) of the country's largest selling daily newspaper—the Philippine Daily Inquirer (PDI).

Reinoso, endearingly called by peers, was recipient of the 2012 Distinguished Bedan award in the field of print media for his exemplary and inspiring leadership his many years of dedication, and a work ethic opportunity to motivate and inspire more people to do well in their work and cultivate that passion for excellence and pride in what they do. Most

by Joffre M. Alajar

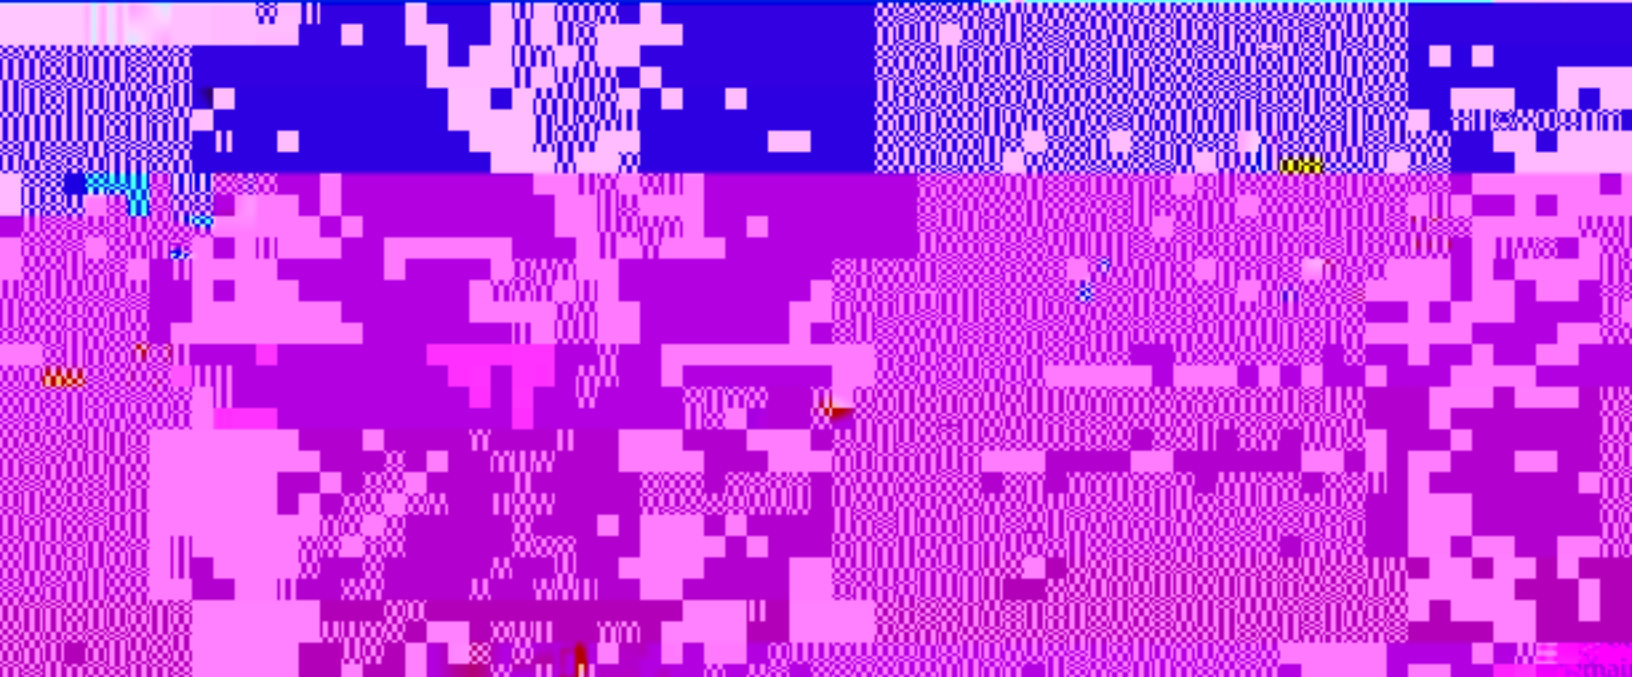

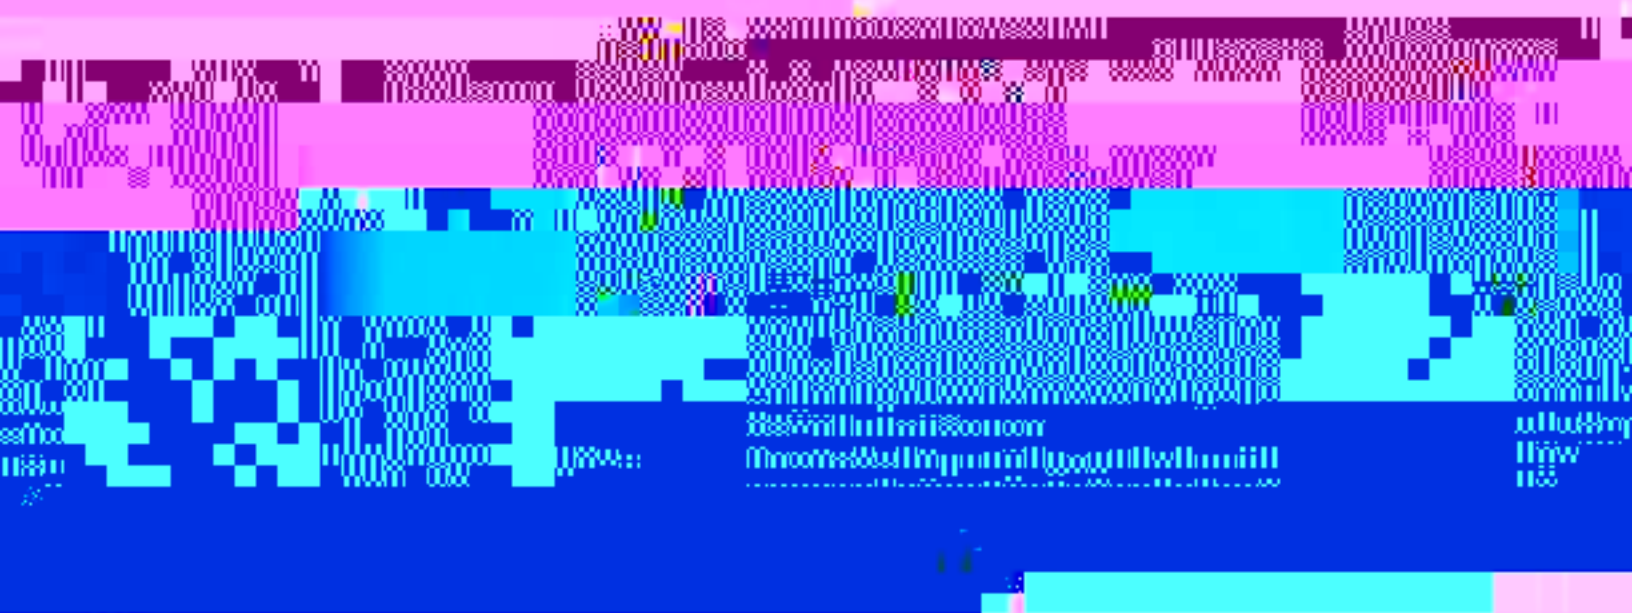

How best does one speak

Atty. Rene V. Sarmiento, COMBED, Commissioner, served recently as a government officer for 22 years, under the leadership and vision of the late President Arroyo. Well-known for his sense of humor, his exemplary integrity, and his deep passion for the country, he was named by the Philippine Commission on Service (PCS) as one of the 100 best government officers in the country.
