A Man of Prayer and Work

Fr. Paul de Vera, OSB shared. He shared his talents and skills from Mangaldan, a town in western Pangasinan. In 1954, he graduated from Santo Tomas College in Manila. He entered the Abbey of Montserrat, Mendiola, Manila.

He studied philosophy both in the Abbey and in San Beda College; and, pursued a Master's degree in Philosophy from the University of the Philippines.

He is a bona fide member of the Philippine Accrediting Association of Schools, Colleges and Universities in the area of library; very much involved with the Mendiola Consortium; taught Library Science subjects at Centro Escolar University from 1974 to 1997.

He is one of the founders and current member of the library association.

He is the "unofficial spiritual father and consultant on library matters" for the association.

He is a resource person for seminars and workshops.

James Sy donates money to help fund swimming and table tennis teams

AS always, Mr. James Sy and his HS Class '89 can be counted upon when the swimming and table tennis teams of San Bede College are in need of financial help.

Mr. Sy, who is currently a resident in the United States, has donated a significant amount of money to the college to help fund the swimming and table tennis teams.

The swimming team has been particularly successful in recent years, and the table tennis team has also shown great improvement.

Mr. Sy's donation will help the college purchase new equipment and hire coaches to further improve the teams.

San Bede College is grateful for Mr. Sy's generosity and looks forward to the continued success of the swimming and table tennis teams.

For more information on the college's sports programs, please contact the athletic department.

San Bede College is committed to providing a high-quality education and a well-rounded student experience.

Thank you to Mr. James Sy and his HS Class '89 for their generous contribution.

San Bede College is proud to have such dedicated and successful alumni.

The swimming and table tennis teams are excited to receive Mr. Sy's donation and will continue to strive for excellence.
